If the Homebuyer concurs with the statement, he shall sign a copy of the statement. If the Homebuyer does not concur, he/she shall state his/her objections. The inspector shall note all such objections on the statement, and the differences shall be resolved by the TDHE.

- (2) On or before commencement of occupancy of the Home, the TDHE shall furnish the Homebuyer with a list of applicable contractor's, manufacturers' and suppliers' warranties, as well as those covered by the contractors' warranties. At each inspection, the TDHE shall obtain a signed statement from the occupants as to deficiencies in the structure, equipment, grounds, etc., so that it may enforce any rights under the applicable warranties.

- b) TDHE Periodic Inspections: The TDHE shall inspect the Home no less often than annually during the contractor's warranty period or periods. The inspections shall include the items covered by manufacturers' and suppliers' warranties, as well as those covered by the contractors' warranties. - c) Responsibility for Items Covered by Warranty: Independent of the TDHE inspections required by Section 5.1(a) and (b), it shall be the responsibility of the Homebuyer during the period covered by Sections 5.1(a) and (b) and subsequently for the duration of the applicable warranties, to promptly inform the TDHE of any deficiencies arising during the warranty periods (including manufacturers' and suppliers' warranties) so that the TDHE may enforce any rights under the applicable warranties. If a Homebuyer fails to report such a deficiency in time, and the TDHE is subsequently unable to obtain redress under the warranty, correction of the deficiency shall be the responsibility of the Homebuyer.

The plan shall provide for maintenance work to be done within a reasonable time by the Homebuyer, or to be done by the TDHE and charged to the Homebuyer's MEPA. If the Homebuyer fails to agree to a reasonable plan or fails to carry out the agreed to plan, this Agreement shall be terminated in accordance with Sections 9.1 and 9.2.

5.3 Homebuyer's Responsibility for Utilities: The homebuyer agrees to furnish his/her own utilities. The TDHE shall have no obligation to do so. However, if the TDHE determines that the Homebuyer is unable to provide his/her utilities, and that this inability creates conditions that are hazardous to the life, health or safety of the occupants, the TDHE may provide the utilities and charge the Homebuyer's MEPA for doing so (subject, however, to the limitation provided at Section 6.3(d)).

5.4 Obligations with Respect to Home and Other Persons and Property:

violate HUD requirements as to construction and design. Any changes made in accordance with this section shall be at the Homebuyer's expense (and not from any Reserve or Account created under this Agreement), and in the event of termination of this Agreement the Homebuyer shall not be entitled to any compensation for such changes or additions.

- d) The TDHE shall at no time permit the accumulation of a debit balance in the MEPA in excess of the sum of the credit balances in the Homebuyer's Refundable MH Reserve unless the expenditure is required to alleviate a hazard to the life, health or safety of the occupants and the source of funds for reimbursement to the TDHE is specifically approved by HUD.

9.1 Termination Upon Breach: In the event the Homebuyer fails to comply with any of his/her obligations under this Agreement, the TDHE may terminate this Agreement. Misrepresentation or withholding of material information in applying for admission or in connection with any subsequent reexamination of income and family composition constitutes a breach of the Homebuyer's obligations under this Agreement. "Termination" as used in this Agreement does not include acquisition of ownership by the Homebuyer.

9.2 Notice of Termination of Agreement by TDHE; Right of Homebuyer to Respond: Termination of this Agreement by the TDHE for any reason shall be by written Notice of Termination. The TDHE may, with HUD approval, modify the provisions of the Notice of Termination relating to the procedures for presentation and consideration of the Homebuyer's response. In all cases the TDHE's procedures for termination of this Agreement shall afford a fair and reasonable opportunity to have the Homebuyer's response heard and considered by the TDHE. Such procedures shall comply with the Indian Civil Rights Act.

9.3 Termination of Agreement by Homebuyer: The Homebuyer may terminate this Agreement by giving the TDHE written notice, and the lease term and this Agreement shall terminate on the 30th day after the date of receipt of such notice. - b) If after making the charges in accordance with Section 9.4(a) there is a debit balance in the MEPA, the TDHE shall charge that debit balance to the Refundable MH Reserve, to the extent of the credit balances in such Reserves and Account. If the debit balance in the MEPA exceeds the sum of the credit balances the Homebuyer shall be required to pay to the TDHE the amount of such excess.
- d) Any credit balance remaining in the Refundable MH Reserve after making the charges described in Section 9.4(b) shall be refunded to the Homebuyer.

9.4 Settlement Upon Termination:

- a) Time for Settlement: Settlement with the Homebuyer following a termination shall be made as promptly as possible after all charges provided in Section 9.4 have been determined and the TDHE has given the Homebuyer a statement of such charges. The Homebuyer may obtain a settlement before the actual cost of any maintenance required to put the Home in satisfactory condition for the next occupant has been determined if the Homebuyer is willing to accept the TDHE's estimate of the amount of such cost. In such case, the amounts to be charged for such maintenance shall be based on the TDHE's estimate of the cost thereof.

- b) Disposition of Personal Property: Upon termination, the TDHE may dispose of in any lawful manner deemed suitable by the TDHE any item of personal property abandoned by the Homebuyer in the Home. The TDHE will notify the Homebuyer of the right to retrieve abandoned property within 14 days.
